

We are thrilled to invite you and anyone else you feel appropriate to tell about our event to our second annual conference. This is a great opportunity to become actively involved in shaping the future of health and care in Lincolnshire. The event is free and you can book by simply following this link.

Key speakers include.....

- Glen Garrod (Lincolnshire County Council)
- John Turner (NHS Lincolnshire CCG)
- Michele Jolly (Vice Chair of VET and CEO of Age UK Lincoln & South Lincolnshire)
- Emily Ward (VET Project Development Manager)
- Ben Rollett & David Fannin (VET director & chief executive VCS)
- Ivan Annibal & Jessica Sellick (VET secretariat & Rose Regeneration)
- Vicky Thomson (VET director & CEO every one)
- Sarah Fletcher (VET director & CEO HWLinCs)
- Caty Collier (VET Social Prescribing Development Lead & area coordinator VCS)
- Kirsteen Redmile (Lead Change Manager – Personalisation, Lincolnshire ICS)
- Chris Wheway (Chair of VET & CEO St Barnabas Hospice)

Voluntary Engagement Team

Linking Differently to Health and Care

Thinking Differently!

Virtual Event: 17th November, 10am -
4:00pm

10am - Councillor Sue Woolley (Lincolnshire County Council)

Context/scene setting about VET and joint working and protocols with the statutory sector.

10.15am – 11.15am –Glen Garrod (Lincolnshire County Council) and John Turner (NHS Lincolnshire CCG)

Statutory sector perspectives – the development of the ICS, relationship with the VCS and the future.

11.15am -11.40am Group Discussion - Q&A and reflections from delegates

11.40am-11.50pm Break

11.50am to 1pm – snapshot overview of VET: challenges and opportunities

11.50am – 12.10pm Thinking Differently - Health and Care - Michele Jolly (Vice Chair of VET and CEO of Age UK Lincoln & South Lincolnshire)

Overview of VET's strategic and operational trajectory since the conference held in October 2020

12.10pm -12.30pm An overview of VET's current activities – Emily Ward (VET Project Development Manager) An outline of the 4 strands VET is developing: communications and marketing, engagement, digital development and Lincolnshire Volunteers.

12.30pm – 12.50pm – Digital Development: Help My Street & Social RX with Mark Hawkins & Lee Dolby

12.50pm – 1pm Q & A Session

1.00pm – 1.30pm Break

1.30pm – 2.10pm Workshop 1

- Current capacity to support health, care and wellbeing services – Ben Rollett (VET director & chief executive VCS) and David Fannin (VET director & chief executive LCVS).
- Demonstrating the impact and value of your organisation – Ivan Annibal & Jessica Sellick (VET secretariat & Rose Regeneration)

2.10pm – 2.50pm Workshop 2

- Working together to collectively influence – Vicky Thomson (VET director & CEO every one) and Sarah Fletcher (VET director & CEO HWLinCs)
- Social prescribing and access to support services – Caty Collier (VET Social Prescribing Development Lead & area coordinator VCS) and Kirsteen Redmile (Lead Change Manager – Personalisation, Lincolnshire ICS).

2.50pm – 3pm Break

3pm – 3.20pm Insights from the Workshops

3.20pm - 3.35pm Looking to the future and closing remarks – Chris Wheway Chair of VET & CEO St Barnabas Hospice & Michele Jolly Vice Chair of VET and CEO of Age UK Lincoln & South Lincolnshire

Lincolnshire Voluntary Sector Portal